

PRIVACY POLICY

GDPR Implementation

The new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) was implemented on 25/05/18

STL International Ltd (STL) has always worked in compliance with the Data Protection Act of 1998, thus the changes although visible, are quite minimal.

Data Sharing

All key personnel at STL are aware of the change of the law to the GDPR and appreciate the impact that this has.

STL is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected.

STL has never and will never share or sell any of its customer and contact data to 3rd parties.

Information Held

We document the personal data we hold, where it came from and to whom it has been sent and is stored for a maximum of 10 years. The personal data is limited to Title, First Name, Family Name, Business Name, Business Telephone Nos. and Business e-mail address and excludes non-business phone nos. unless specific permission is given to do so.

Collection of website data

At present, our website is not monitoring or using any incoming data from outside sources.

When such a facility is installed, a revised Privacy Policy will be introduced with additional information as follows:

You will be made aware that this site is being monitored and may capture information concerning your visit to the site. We may collect the following when you access our website:

- your IP address, the country and area where your computer is located.
- pages of our website that were viewed during your visit and any search items that you entered.

We collate this information for internal record keeping and use it to improve our products and services.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. To prevent unauthorised access or disclosures, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard the information we collect.
